

The phantom haunts you happily from now
through Halloween.

And was delivered by a friend who (hopefully) was not seen.

The spirit of the neighborhood has come
to wish you well.

Someone, somewhere selected you to receive this happy spell.

You must display the phantom on your door so all can spy.

That your already haunted by this happy little guy.

Now, fix 3 sacks with goodies
like the ones given to you.

Ring someone's bell and leave
a treat and make them happy
too!
