

You can make a Memory Game Board like this one by laminating the cards, hole punch at the top of each card, make a small slit with a knife above where you want the card to go, use ribbon to go through the hole punch and into the slit, then tape the ribbon on the back. This way players can easily turn over the card and it stays in place.

